We, your Committee on Missions, offer the following report: So long as every Christian acknowledges Christ as his Master, and takes the Bible as the Word of God, and respects the duties imposed upon them by his word or example, so long as they receive the riches of his grace, they should feel it their bounden duty to go and preach the Gospel to every creature. We are not all preachers, but we should be all workers in extending the gospel by giving of our substance, so as to enable the ambassador of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to go forth and proclaim the glad tidings to lost and ruined sinners. Does the Bible teach us to do this? Read Genesis, xivth chapter; Lev. xxviii chapter; Numbers, xviii chapter; Malachi, Matthew, Luke, and the apostle Paul's writings: Why cavil over the Word of God? Does the meek and lowly Jesus ask us poor, dependent, finite, mortals to give of the bounty that we receive from his merciful hands? What can we do for those who have not the gospel? Pray for them, and give to send it to them. We recommend that every Christian use every effort during the next associational year to raise money for this purpose, and that the Executive Committee be an especial committee for that purpose, and hold meetings, and studiously apply the same to Home Missions.

Respectfully,

M. BRUNSON, Chm.
